- ◆ The Housing Authority's Moderate Rehabilitation Program is a drug-free program. Persons who are actively using illegal substances are excluded from eligibility. Persons who have committed certain other crimes are also not eligible. In signing my name to this application the applicant(s) is giving the Housing Authority of Thurston county permission to do a Washington State Patrol check and to check with other law enforcement entities to make sure the household meets the screening criteria for the program. We are also giving HATC permission to verify any and all statements in the pre-application. (Full details on the screening criteria and the priorities and preferences being used by HATC to determine eligibility for a voucher are available in the program's Administrative Plan.)
- ◆ When the application reaches the top of the Moderate Rehabilitation Program waiting list, the applicant will be interviewed for income and preference eligibility. Once the applicant meets these standards, (s)he is sent to the Management Company to go through a tenant screening process and shown an available unit.
- ◆ This is the first step in the eligibility process and will secure eligible applicants a place on the program waiting list. When the application reaches the top of the list, the applicant will need to complete detailed questionnaires and disclosure forms. All statements are subject to third-party verification.
- ◆ I have read the above statement. All information that has been provided is accurate and truthful. I understand that providing false or misleading information could result in action to disqualify the application.
